

Youthful Effects in the Newest Styles of Betty Wales Serge Dresses!

Such a remarkable way of combining smartness and simplicity has Betty Wales that one almost instinctively knows that these new arrivals in our dress department show the famous Betty Wales label.

This season we offer a variety of models, each individual and many with delightful little touches that endear the garments to critical dressers.

The Betty Wales stays in style as well as sets the style. The materials and workmanship are worth noting too, in these days when style is too often at the expense of service.

Betty Wales Dresses are priced at $15.00, $18.50 and up to $23.50.

TALK OF THE TOWN

Alma Hanlon in "God of Little Children," a five-reel feature at the Bijou to-day—adv.

Ralph Tobin of Academy street left yesterday for Boston, where he will spend a few days with friends.

B. H. Sanborn of Greensboro and F. B. Garfield of Marshfield were among the visitors in the city yesterday.

Mrs. Frank French of Woodsville, N. H., is visiting in the home of her sister, Mrs. W. Steward of Mount street.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Skilton of Concord, N. H., are registered at Hotel Barre while passing a few days in the city.

Miss Grace McDonald of Addison place has gone to Glover, where she has secured a position as a teacher in the public schools.

Miss Lessel Steward of Mount street left yesterday for Worcester, where she is visiting in the home of her grandparents.

Byron Wilbur and son, John, returned last evening to their home in East Calais after having made a short visit in town with friends.

Miss Rebecca Chesser, of Currier street resumed her duties at the cashier's desk in the Union Clothing store this morning after a vacation of two weeks.

Mrs. Henry Wheeler of the East Montpelier road and Mrs. Arthur Barber of the Richardson road are going to Northfield Falls to visit Mrs. C. A. Cady.

Among the business visitors in town yesterday were: John Kenworthy of Plainfield, Robert Ewen of Granville and Mrs. Henry Batchelder of Plainfield.

H. J. M. Jones of Jones Bros. Co., who has been passing a day in Boston on business connected with the New England coal commission, of which he is a member, returned this morning.

Representative Fred O. Ralph of Brookfield, who is recovering steadily from a serious illness which confined him to the house for several months, visited at the home of his son, Neil O. Ralph, to-day.

Dr. Spencer left last evening for New York City, where he will spend a few days visiting with his brother. Dr. Spencer has been spending the past few months in town, practicing in the office of Dr. Martin in the Miles block.

One long blast from the fire whistle at the gas plant put the firemen at the central station on their mettle for a moment Tuesday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock, but the alarm did not continue and the noise was later traced to a crossed wire.

The difficulty was adjusted by linemen and at the test hour this morning the alarm rang true to form.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred A. Church of South Main street, have returned to the city after passing a few days with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. Church, in Burlington. They were accompanied home by Miss Isabelle Jackson, who has resumed her duties in the local office of American Stone Trade, after visiting at her home on Thompson's point, Lake Champlain.

The development of another case of poliomyelitis on Summer street has caused the police to issue another warning to children under 16. So far as they are concerned the regulation which aims to keep children under 16 segregated on their own premises is still in force and if parents do not co-operate with the patrolmen in having their offspring obey the rule the police say that something more than a warning will be the result.

Henry Brewer, a former resident of Barre, is visiting his sister, Mrs. William Steward of Mount street while passing his vacation among relatives in Barre and Orange county towns, left to-day for Benton Harbor, Mich., where he has been employed for some time as a conductor on the Pere Marquette railroad. In the earlier days of the M. & W. R. and Barre & Chelsea railroads Mr. Brewer was employed as a brakeman in Barre and is acquainted with many of the older employees of the railroad.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Wardwell, who have been visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Abbott of Belmont avenue during the past week, left this morning for their home in Bangor, Me. They were accompanied to St. Johnsbury by Mr. Abbott, the trip being made by automobile.

Information received by friends of George E. Leithner in Barre indicates that he has enlisted in the royal flying corps of Canada, having been assigned to duty as a cadet pilot. At present the young man is located in Toronto, although his plans for the immediate future appear uncertain. Before the war Mr. Leithner, whose home is in Chicago, was employed in the office of Barclay Bros. Soon after the United States entered the war he took steps to enlist in the U. S. aviation corps and took the examinations in Bellows Falls.

Parents of two Barre young men who left with Washington county's quota of 10 for Ayer, Mass., Sunday to join the new national army have received letters advising them of conditions in the big training camp. Mr. and Mrs. John R. Paul of West Patterson street are advised by their son, Francis Paul, who was in charge of the first increment, of his safe arrival in Ayer, after an uneventful trip. A letter received by Mrs. Julia Kenefick of Prospect street, whose son, John G. C. Kenefick, was in the party, states that the men seem well pleased with their surroundings and that all has gone well with them since their arrival.

What to do with the 10-year-old son of Mrs. Amelia Wood is one of the problems waiting for a solution at police headquarters, although the authorities are in communication with the state board of charities and probation with a view to placing the lad where he will receive good care. His mother was recently convicted in city court of a statutory offense and will be taken to Rutland this evening to begin a sentence of seven months in the house of correction. The boy's father, F. E. Wood of Springfield, arrived in the city last evening and is doing what he can to make provisions for the youngster. The apartment occupied by Mrs. Wood in Depot square has been closed and at present the little fellow is without a home.

Guests arriving at Hotel Barre last night and this morning included the following people: Mrs. G. C. Partridge, Miss Partridge, J. Ten Eyck of New York City, W. T. Hendee, T. W. Sears, Alec Hebert and Thomas B. Garvey of Burlington, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Skilton of Concord, N. H., H. D. Sparrow of Bellows Falls, J. H. Faught of Portsmouth, N. H., Mrs. E. Scott, Mrs. C. C. Howland and chauffeur of Templeton, N. Y., A. J. Winslow of Auburn, Me., T. T. Penrose of Medford, Mass., J. M. Cope of Springfield, Mr. and Mrs. H. N. Walker of New York, Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Barrows of Chester, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Walker, Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Westcott, A. R. Westcott of New Haven, Conn., F. H. Eaton of Boston, Charles H. W. Farnham of Springfield, Edward H. Reynolds of Troy, N. J., J. H. Atherton of Burlington, Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Walker, Miss Florence Walker, Mrs. M. H. Schenk, I. E. Walker of Westboro, Mass., F. E. Wood of Springfield, C. C. Adams of Portland, Me., F. O. Barber of Groton, Mass.

MONTEPIER

Chief Master-at-Arms Charles Mitchell has received from the navigation board a call for more men. Since the draft was put into effect there has been a marked reduction in the number of enlistments all over the country and at present the navy needs about 24,000 more men. This is largely due to the fact that many are being placed on the newly equipped ships and promotions which have taken place. The force at Washington on clerical work is unable to keep up with the work. The impression seems to prevail that the navy is full, but that is not the case. Every man in the navy is a volunteer. The lowest pay in the navy to-day is $32.50 a month with all equipment, board and expenses included to their regular routine of work. The army going to Europe is dependent entirely upon the navy, for unless there are plenty of ships to carry the army to Europe, then they will be unable to do any fighting for the country. Delay in recruiting the navy means delay in movement of troops on the transports.

C. A. Lang and David Burns left last evening for Rutland, where to day they are attending the annual summer meeting of the Vermont Life Underwriters' association, the members of which are guests at Earl Kingsley's camp at Mendon.

Miss Annie Aronovsky, who has been visiting in New York for the last six weeks, returned home last evening.

Mrs. E. M. Harvey, who has been in Colchester with relatives for a short time, returned home Tuesday afternoon.

H. A. Babbitt of Bellows Falls is visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Frank K. Gregg.

L. J. Phelps of Newport is the guest of Mrs. Harold Keith, his daughter.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Buzzell left last evening for an outing at Plattsburg, N. Y., which will include attending the fair in progress there this week.

An interesting case developed in probate court this morning when the will of the late Charlotte Lyman Washburn of Dresden, Germany, was proven.

She died recently in Dresden at an advanced age after some 18 years' residence in that city. She went there for a visit and remained. The will was witnessed by Paul Auras, Clara Simon and Ulysses J. Bywater all of Dresden, whose signatures had to be proven by Mrs. Caroline W. Lord of Burlington and other persons who knew the parties and the fact that they signed the will. Mrs. Lord is a daughter of Mrs. Washburn, who leaves quite a little property in Waterbury. William H. Moriarty of Northfield settled his account as administrator of the estate of Selma Joslin, late of Northfield. Burton E. Tucker of Montpelier settled his account of the estate of Almon A. Tucker, late of Marshfield. The will of Mrs. Ellen Stone, who died Tuesday, was presented this morning for probate.

Hazel Jock was arrested in Burlington Tuesday by Sheriff C. A. Smith on the charge of adultery upon a warrant signed by Grand Juror John Stone. She was brought into city court this morning and through A. C. Theriault, her attorney, waived examination and was bound over to county court with bail fixed at $500, which she expected to be able to furnish during the day. The alleged co-respondent in the case is Alex. Brown of Burlington and the time set forth in the writ is July 20 in Montpelier.

J. E. Kennedy left this morning for Fair Haven to meet his family, who have been visiting there and who will accompany him home.

Miss Sarah Dailey left this morning for Boston to enter Simmons college.

Mrs. E. J. Speare and daughter, Cora, who have been visiting with Mrs. George Clogston and Mrs. John Jerue here and with a sister in Barre, left this morning for their home in Lynn, Mass.

A Card.

Thirty years ago the first day of the present September I moved to Gospel Village. What a change! But a few who were my neighbors then are now. Most of them have gone to their long home. A mother and two daughters came in to spend the evening with me. Those daughters were small children when I moved here. And other neighbors, who had moved later, came in with their kind wishes to me. To all of them and to those who sent me so many beautiful cards, that beautiful basket of fruit of all kinds and other nice presents on my 73d birthday Sept. 11 I wish to thank for thinking of me so kindly.

Mrs. Mary E. Baldwin.
